THE MYSTERY KEY

Detective Mission

Read the story carefully and solve the detective challenges!

Last Wednesday our class visited the town library. It was quiet and warm. “Wait for me!” shouted Leo as he hurried through the front doors. Mrs Carter told the children to stay together, but Emma and Jack stopped near the reading corner. Suddenly, Emma pointed at a chair. “Look!” she said. “Someone left a key here.”

The key was old and shiny. No one was sitting nearby. Everyone looked curious.

Part of the note was missing, but he could still read the words: "...door upstairs..." "Maybe the key belongs to someone in the library," whispered Emma. Just then, the librarian hurried past them carrying a stack of books. Later, Emma and Jack followed the signs to the upper floor. At the end of a narrow corridor, they discovered an old wooden door. "I've never seen this door before," said Jack. The key fit perfectly in the lock. Slowly, the door opened. Inside the room, they found dusty shelves, old maps, and a large wooden box. On top of the box was a name written in gold letters. "Whose room is this?" asked Emma. Suddenly, they heard footsteps coming down the corridor.
